THANKSGIVING DAY .- To-day has been appointed by his Excellency Gov. Powell, as a day for thanksgiving and prayer, and we know that in a community, where there is such an appreciation of Divine goodness, as exists in this place, that it will be general observed as such. To us, this day comes fraught with a thousand Union or pleasing reflections. It comes as a day of rest, npon which we can rest from the toils and the troubles of an active and laborious business life, and commune in quiet peacefulness with our own thoughts. Then, too, the soul-reviving spectacle of a nation, bowing in reverent adoration, tacked a nation, bowing in reverent adoration, and the soul of the soul of the soul. This whose citality will be hostily in the South. This whose citality will be hostily in the South. This and returning their thanks to the bountiful and beneficent Giver of all things, for his manifold fe leracy, which was once before attempted in blessings and mercies during the year. We say a nation, because it is not a single State, but nearly the whole of this Union, that will be engaged in the exercises of thank giving to-day. To-day the mechanic can leave the workshop, and in the bosom of his family, lift his voice with theirs in praise to the Great High; the meritance of the south, and a prohibition in the south, and a prohibition in the family of the south, and a prohibition in the family of the south, and a prohibition in the family of the south. chant can abandon his counting room, the toil against foreign born ever hobling any office in the worn seautress her work, and in fact, all of eve-

A POLITICAL PROPRICY FULFILLED AND FULFILL-G .- The Washington Union, of a late date, contains the letter below, and introduces it with the following truthful language:

The following is an extract from a letter of flow B. F. Haller to the Democratic Convention at Peterslarg, Virginia, published October 18, 1852. The predictions which it contains are now in coore of complete fidtilinent. "A consolidation of all the issue into an exclusively sectional party at the North, whose vitality will be less casy.

It may be that something else than negroes that the very larger and the consolidation of the issue into an exclusively sectional party at the North, whose vitality will be less casy.

Here is the extract: which now promises to be a ront and the dis-banding of the Whig party) is pretty well fore-shedowed in the future. Mr. Calle on prophesied she dowed in the fitting. Mr. Calle an prophesied that whichever party was beaten at the North in the election of 1848, would join the abolition party. This prophesy falled, because the Democratic party of the North were beaten, and that party says a body, never has do sted the Union or severed from the South. The prophecy will be fulfilled when the Scott Whits of the North are defeated in 1852, unless political abolitionism shell cerus to be the element, in either of two participal parties which have always sub-
